Artists will be selected to insure high quality of work and diversity throughout the entire Tour and various artists' groupings.

Artists must have an Alto mailing address at time of registration, be a returning artist from 2011, or be an invited guest artist.

All work must be original, created and signed by the participating artist who must have a current inventory available for sale. Prints, etc. of the artist's original works are acceptable.

AAST is committed to having multiple artists at each site.

Site hosts will make available space for one or more artists to show their work. Participants must agree to complete set-up prior to the opening and have work displayed the entire length of the show.

Site hosts reserve the option of refusing an artist to display their work in their site home

Participation fee will be $125 per participant deposited upon acceptance.

Artists are expected to attend at least 3 meetings, and each artist is expected to solicit at least one sponsor for $50 (or be billed for that amount.) Other sponsor levels are available for additional amounts.

AAST does provide insurance. Insurance is for sites and/or individuals.

All artists are expected to participate in the pre-tour reception at the Spencer Theater. Artists are also expected to donate one piece of work for the silent auction. Items to be offered will have a minimum value of $50.

Do you have a preferred site location? Where? _____

The selection committee reserves the right to accept or refuse sites and artists being considered.

Submissions due March 1st for Returning Artists and March 15th for New Applicant. No additions or changes in artist's profiles or pictures will be accepted after March 15th.

Artists must submit at least 3 high quality photos on CD along with a short "bio", (limited to 60 words,) that can be used for publicity. Mailed to P.O.Box 447, Alto, 88312 or by electronic mail.
$125 check made out to AAST (to be deposited upon acceptance)
